LAS VACINAS DINNER DANCE SET FOR DEC. 7

The Palos Verdes Country Club will be the scene of the Las Vecinas annual Christmas dinner dance December 7. Candy cane invitations have been extended to 300 members and guests to dance to the music of Ray Clark and his orchestra.

Mrs. Theodore R. Corazza, Las Vecinas social chairman will direct the festivities, assisted by Mrs. James E. Barnard. Mrs. John Geissler heads the invitation committee comprised of members: Mmes. Harvey Spelman, Charles Sturgill, William Peterson, John Walli, John Doyle, Maurice Wilson, John Woods, Wendell Higbee, and Rodney Freeman.

Mrs. Charles Norman and her committee members: Mmes. Bernard Beard, James Barnard, James Byrd, Wilburn French, W. H. Goshman, Quinton Johnson, Jay B. Madden, William Schuchman, and Robert Underwood are in charge of decorations.

Pre-dance cocktail parties will be held in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forshee; Mr. and Mrs. John Doyle with Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Wilson co-hosting; Mr. and Mrs. Robert

Brownie Tea

Mothers of Brownie Troop 2127, met recently, at the home of Mrs. Robert E. Walker to make plans for a Mother-Daughter Tea which will be held on December 22 at the home of Mrs. Charles R. Peterson.

The mothers also drew names and gifts will be exchanged at the tea.

The troop is sponsored by Flavian PTA.

New Series of Expectant Parents Classes Offered

Although the second session of the new series of expectant mothers' classes is scheduled for Thursday (December 5), prospective mothers may still register, Dr. B. A. Kogan, District Health Officer for the Torrance Health center, 2300 Carson street, said.

The classes convene at 1 p.m. each Thursday. For this next session, the film, "Human Growth" has been booked by Miss Ann Snoddy, public health nurse-instructor. There is no registration fee as the courses is a tax-supported service of Los Angeles County Health Department.

NAME SEVEN POSSIBLE CONVENTION DELEGATES

"National is you, through your elected delegates to the convention," Carolyn Duke stated when she spoke at the Harbor Area YWCAs' Electoral Assembly.

She explained the workings of the National board stating that business is carried on within the broad framework of the policies made by the convention and that all of the action taken by the national board or staff are governed accordingly. Miss Duke also reviewed the work of the association abroad.

The names of seven women representatives of the area with a broad background in YWCA work were read as possible convention delegates. From the seven, two will be chosen to serve as voting delegates. Ballots will be sent to electoral members. Those whose names will appear: Dr. Frances Clark, and Mmes. Loraine Harper, Robert Sharp, E. C. Spires, Thomas Westfall, Don Wolf, and Marion Young.

Mrs. Marion Young, Area Convention chairman, explained the three year convention cycle. The theme this year is "Deep Roots and World Reach" and the dates March 13 to 19, 1958, Mrs. Young stated.

Preceding the business of the meeting members of the Y-Teens from the Wilmington branch led the group in devotions using excerpts from the national World Fellowship service which was held in Washington, D.C. Those participating were: Patsy King, Bunny Stone, Loise Recter, Sally Carmona, Rose Ann Fasano.

Community singing was led by Jeannette Patchin, San Pedro Branch director with Mrs. Roy McCowan as accompanist.

Kristina Parry, Red Feather Ambassador was introduced.

Dessert was served by the San Pedro membership committee headed by Mrs. George Hermann. Those assisting were: Mrs. Emil Sandgren, Mrs. Marguerite Battersby, Mrs. Earl Roath, and Lee Johnson.

Surprise Party

Don Wolf was guest of honor recently at a surprise birthday party given by Mrs. Wolf.
